

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to require their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is an outrage. Sinclair stations must be licensed to use the public airwaves free of charge and they are required by law to serve the public interest. Airing a completely partisan program as if it were a neutral "documentary" instead of a campaign ad for the Republicans is not in the public interest by any stretch of reason or imagination.